DPO/OROLSI/PD/2020/326

The Secretariat of the United Nations presents its compliments to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations and has the honour to invite its Government to nominate individual police officers in active service for appointment on secondment to the Standing Police Capacity of the Police Division, with its duty station in the Logistics Base in Brindisi, Italy (UNLB), for a period of one year. Any further contract extension can be granted on an exceptional basis provided there is a mission mandate requirement, and the incumbent displays good performance, dedication, professionalism and the achieved results. The final decision on the extension is subject to approval by the United Nations and concurrence by the national authorities.

Details regarding the post/s for which the Secretariat is seeking qualified applicants are provided in the attached job opening/s No 2020-SPC-75908-DPO, 2020-SPC-75914-DPO, 2020-SPC-78757-DPO and 2020-SPC-78771. Also attached are the "Application Procedures for Positions in United Nations Police Components in Peacekeeping Operations and Special Political Missions Requiring Official Secondment from National Governments of Member States of the United Nations".

The Secretariat kindly requests the Permanent Mission to submit a separate application for each nominee for each job opening to meyer3@un.org, in accordance with the above-referenced procedures, certifying that the nominee/s meet/s the requirements in the attached job opening/s. Applications submitted after the deadline specified in the job opening will not be considered.

The Permanent Mission is also requested to confirm that selected candidates will be released, in a timely manner, from the national police service obligations for service with the United Nations. It is also requested to ensure that the rank of each candidate submitted is indicated on the application. In addition, it is strongly recommended that Member States carefully pre-screen their applicants and submit only those candidates meeting all requirements for the position as described in the job opening/s.

Member States are strongly encouraged to nominate qualified female police officers. Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.

The Secretariat wishes to inform the Permanent Mission of the Member State that, in an effort to streamline and expedite the procedures of recruiting seconded officers, candidates placed on a roster following the selection process may be considered for posts with similar functions within a period of two years and if recommended for deployment, further arrangements will be coordinated with the Permanent Mission in due course.

It should be noted that during the period of their secondment, officers may not transfer to alternative positions within the United Nations. As a result, the nomination of police officers who are currently United Nations staff members on secondment, will not be considered.

The Secretariat wishes to reiterate that promoting and encouraging respect for human rights is a core purpose of the United Nations and central to the delivery of its mandates. Should the Secretariat become aware of grave human rights violations which give rise to concerns as to the record and performance of [country] police personnel, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in UN peace operations. In the case of nominees who have been investigated for, charged with or prosecuted for any criminal offence, with the exception of minor traffic violations (driving while intoxicated or dangerous or careless driving are not considered minor traffic violations for this purpose), but were not convicted, the Government is requested to provide information regarding the investigation(s) or prosecutions concerned. The Government is also requested to certify that it is not aware of any allegations against its nominated candidates that they have committed or been involved, by act or omission, in the commission of any acts that may amount to violations of international human rights law or international humanitarian law.

The Secretariat recalls that it has a zero-tolerance approach to fraud and corruption. The Government is therefore requested to certify that there was no corruption or fraud in the nomination and extension procedures of police officers on secondment to the United Nations. Should the Secretariat become aware of allegations of corruption or fraud in the nomination or extension procedures of police officers on secondment, this may constitute grounds to revoke its acceptance of such personnel to serve in the United Nations as well as suspension of any future police deployments from the contributing country concerned.

The Secretariat also recalls that the responsibilities of those personnel who are appointed to serve in United Nations peacekeeping or special political missions are exclusively international in character. They perform their functions under the authority of, and in full compliance with, the instructions of the Secretary-General of the United Nations and persons acting on his behalf and are duty-bound not to seek or accept instructions in regard to the performance of their duties from any government or from other authorities external to the United Nations. Seconded personnel should carry out their functions in accordance with all applicable regulations, rules and procedures of the Organization.

The Secretariat of the United Nations avails itself of this opportunity to renew to the Permanent Mission of Member State to the United Nations the assurances of its highest consideration.

RESPONSIBILITIES: Under the direct supervision of the SPC Team Leader, the incumbent assists in the development, refinement and implementation of various law enforcement policy and planning tools associated with establishing and maintaining effective and efficient UN Police operations. The SPC is a UN Police mechanism for starting up police components in new UN peace operations as well as assisting existing peace operations on a continual basis. It is envisaged that the incumbent will deploy to missions and be away from his/her duty station for an initial period from three to six months. More generally, the incumbent works with other SPC staff to ensure the timely preparation and dissemination of relevant reports, concept papers and action plans on international police issues relevant to ensuring the SPC's field activities (addressing both broader policy and technical administrative issues inherent in UN Police mandates). More specifically, the incumbent focuses on developing, implementing and/or updating Concepts of Operations (ConOps), Integrated Mandate Implementation Plans (IMIPs), mission assessments, mission planning and other policy and planning tools for UN Police from the perspective of the specific field assignments given to the SPC. The incumbent assists in developing, refining and updating SPC policies and directives that are in line with the strategic vision of the Police Division and the SPC. The incumbent also assists other SPC members as directed in other law enforcement thematic areas outside his/her own area of focus. When at headquarters in Brindisi, the incumbent works closely with other SPC members to integrate and balance their activities into respective ConOps and IMIPs in support of the SPC's own terms of reference for its assignments. S/he develops annual SPC workplans in line with Results Based Budgeting (RBB) and assists members with developing individual workplans. S/he also prepares brief country reports and security analyses of the mission areas to which the SPC is being sent. When deployed in the field, the incumbent reviews UN Police operations and analyses the state of development of national law enforcement agencies with a view to facilitating required improvements and changes in ConOps and IMIPs, bearing in mind the strategic mission of the UN Police, which is to build institutional law enforcement capacity in conflict and post-conflict environments.

COMPETENCIES:

Professionalism: Knowledge of democratic policing, law enforcement, community safety and capacity-building; ability to remain calm in stressful situations; good research, analytical and problem-solving skills. Commitment to implementing the goal of gender equality by ensuring the equal participation and full involvement of women and men in all aspects of peace operations.

Planning and Organizing:

Develops clear goals that are consistent with agreed strategies; identifies priority activities and assignments; adjusts priorities as required; allocates appropriate amount of time and resources for completing work; foresees risks and allows for contingencies when planning; monitors and adjusts plans and actions as necessary; uses time efficiently. Teamwork: Works collaboratively with colleagues to achieve organizational goals; solicits input by genuinely valuing others' ideas and expertise; is willing to learn from others; places team agenda before personal agenda; supports and acts in accordance with final group decision, even when such decisions may not entirely reflect own position; shares credit for team accomplishments and accepts joint responsibility for team shortcomings.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education: Advanced university degree (Master's degree or equivalent) in the applied sciences, social sciences or other relevant field. A first level university degree with a combination of relevant academic qualifications and extensive experience in law enforcement may be accepted in lieu of the advanced university degree. Graduation from a certified police academy or similar law enforcement training institution is required. Work Experience: A minimum of five years of progressively law enforcement experience in active national police, with a current rank of at least Chief Inspector or Major, equivalent or higher rank is required. Experience in law enforcement planning and formulation/implementation of policy is required. Peacekeeping or other international experience in the UN or other organizations is an advantage. Languages: English and French are the working languages of the UN. For the post advertised, fluency in oral and written English is required. Knowledge of a second official UN language, preferably French is highly desirable.

Date of Issuance: 23 November 2020

Preference will be given to equally qualified women candidates.
